

The Pelican Education Foundation, a local charitable organization that supports the Klamath Falls City Schools (KFCS), recently awarded $7,000 in innovation grants to staff members of KFCS. These annual grants are made possible by the generosity of individuals who value education and who want the best for children.

Congratulations to the following individuals who were awarded these grants:

-Trevor Rokosky, a Ponderosa Middle School teacher, was awarded $126 for a readers' theater curriculum;

-Sara Johnson, Dusti Krueger, and Margie Altofer, Roosevelt Elementary teachers, were awarded a combined $1,181 for classroom Chromebook laptop computers;

-Michelle Disafano and Amy Stroh, Conger Elementary teachers, were awarded a combined $981 for Classroom Chromebook laptop computers;

-Hollie Donaski, Jolene Grande, and Kim Dunaway, Pelican Elementary teachers, were awarded a combined $1,181 for flexible and innovative seating for their classrooms;

-Ashley McPherson, a Conger Elementary teacher, was awarded $272 for a reading curriculum supplement and a curriculum that uses music to aid in teaching and learning in a variety of disciplines;

Susan Kramer, a KUHS media specialist, was awarded $1,000 to help in rebuilding the KUHS library collection;

-Dan Stearns, KUHS teacher, was awarded $500 to purchase digital cameras for a media design class;

-Sara Gray, a Conger Elementary teacher, was awarded $320 for a collection of partner reading books;

Tammy Smith and Shawna Behm, Conger Elementary teachers, were awarded a combined $739 to purchase a snack cart, uniforms, and ingredients to teach special need students entrepreneurial skills;

Gretchen Harwood, a Conger Elementary teacher, was awarded $700 for World Drums and a curriculum to teach multicultural lessons.

For more information about the Pelican Education Foundation visit www.pelicaneducationfoundation.com